📍 Meteora – Thermopylae

You will have the opportunity to visit monasteries with Byzantine architecture on rocks, that have been characterized by UNESCO as a unique phenomenon of cultural heritage. Take photos and videos of the amazing, unique worldwide, high landscape. Visit the monasteries of Great Meteoro and Varlaam Monastery

The Monastery of Great Meteoron, built on the most imposing rock, it's the largest and most formal of the extant Meteora which occupies a commanding position among the monastic complex of Meteora.

The Great Meteoron was founded shortly before the middle of the 14th century by Saint Athanasios the Meteorite, who was also its first founder and the first to organize a systematic monastic community.

The Holy Monastery of Varlaam was named after its founder, the ascetic monk Varlaam who lived in a cave as a hermit and built a chapel on top of a rock. In the 16th century, two brothers, Theophanis and Nektarios Apsaradas who were both monks, enlarged the chapel and built a monastery.

Also, you will see the city of Kalambaka where you could taste the local delicious traditional Greek cuisine.

Visit the historic Thermopylae, the location where the battle between ancient Greeks and Persians took place that changed the course of European history. See the battlefield, the statue of King Leonidas and visit the museum.
